CONTINUING EDUCATION
Approved Provider

As a university-based center, all professional development opportunities meet necessary continuing education guidelines for the state of New Jersey in addictions, social work, education, and nursing. Continuing Education Units are awarded for participation in all professional development programs. Recertification for CADC and LCADC is approved by The Certification Board, Inc. The Center of Alcohol Studies is an NBCC-Approved Continuing Education Provider (ACEP) and may offer NBCC-approved clock hours for events that meet NBCC requirements. The ACEP solely is responsible for all aspects of the program. The Center is also approved for continuing education units by the National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC), and by the New Jersey Department of Health as a provider of New Jersey Public Health Continuing Education Contact Hours (CEs).

EDUCATION AND TRAINING DIVISION

The Education and Training Division at Rutgers Center of Alcohol Studies strives to ensure a connection between research and practice. Directed by Laura Fenster Rothschild, PsyD, the division pursues its mission by providing various comprehensive professional development opportunities to enhance knowledge in addictions while creating leaders in a range of clinical, health science, and social science fields. SEMINAR LOCATION AND PARKING
Seminars are held in Smithers Hall at the Center of Alcohol Studies on Busch Campus. Once the registration form and deposit are received, a confirmation email will be sent, which includes travel directions to the Center of Alcohol Studies, a parking permit, and instructions for the day of each seminar. The University will ticket cars without permits; seminar participants are responsible for their own parking tickets.

REGISTRATION AND TUITION
Students may register online at education.alcoholstudies.rutgers.edu/seminar or by completing the registration form and faxing or mailing it to the Education and Training Division.

The fee for each seminar is $75.00 unless otherwise indicated. This includes a light breakfast, lunch, and educational materials distributed by faculty. A $25.00 non-refundable deposit per seminar should be paid at the time of registration; this deposit will be applied toward the tuition fee. Final payment is due one week prior to attendance. If mailing in registration, all checks and money orders should be made payable to Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. MasterCard, Visa, and American Express are also accepted. Tuition support is available. For more information, visit our website education.alcoholstudies.rutgers.edu/seminar.

TUITION REMISSION
If you are a New Jersey employee at a DMHAS licensed agency, you may qualify for tuition remission. Please visit our website for more details.

REFUND
A refund, less a $25 non-refundable deposit, will be issued for cancellations received via email at least 5 business days prior to the seminar. After this date, a credit can be applied towards another seminar and refunds will not be issued.
